RCS Recruitment Fair Processing Notice

Why is my personal data being requested?

We collect personal data in order to carry out a recruitment and selection process.

What personal information does RCS collect?

We will collect information about:

- personal details (name, address, contact details)
- employment and training history
- previous employment details (name of employer, occupation, number of hours worked, contact details)

Who will RCS share my information with?

RCS will share data with the staff involved in the recruitment process and as appropriate referees.

How is my personal information kept secure and how long is it kept for?

RCS has technical and operational measures in place to ensure the safe and secure storage of personal data. RCS operates to be compliant with the GDPR. We use secure networks for the electronic transfer of data.

Application data is kept for 6 months following the closure of an advert. After that a log of applicants will be kept and all other personal data destroyed securely.

What are my rights?

You have the right to request to access personal information RCS holds about you and to request that RCS rectifies any incorrect information held about you. If you would like to make such a request, please notify us in writing for the attention of the Data Lead to the address below and allow 30 days for a response.

If you have a concern about the personal data collected or the way in which it was collected, you can raise this with the Information Commissioners Office. Their website is www.ico.org.uk

How to contact RCS

You can contact the data protection lead – Jan Jones via email jan.jones@rcs-wales.co.uk
